

2022-01-19 - Lecture 01

1) Importance of Architectural History

- Importance of reading and examining drawings
- Importance of understanding the big ideas behind the built environment
- Importance of being able to discuss arch history with professionals and with general audiences
- Importance of knowing what came before you
- Importance as a design resource

2) Chenoweth's organization into three categories (see examples):

- Literal Translation
- Formal Interpretation
- Inspirational Influence